

welcome to som saa

thai food is not renowned for pairing well with wine or drinks generally. only thing is we like drinks and we love thai food! and after a lot of arduous tasting sessions, we've come to believe it can be matched brilliantly - it just requires a sense of adventure.

the following drinks are all chosen to match thai food in one way or another. they lean towards the unusual but hopefully not for the sake of it - the acidity, bold spicing and chilli heat of many thai dishes require similar clout from the drinks to match.

many of the wines are off-dry, a number are very aromatic, some are just downright different and the reds tend to be riper and less tannic.

please just ask if we can be of guidance to your taste buds or if you'd like to hear about some of the special bottles we often have hidden out the back

COFFEE

We are delighted to serve Climpson & Sons coffee. Having hosted us for a year at our popup they are now part of the som saa story. Since Thailand has no café or espresso culture we have decided to keep things simple and serve Climpson's beautiful estate blend as french press. With or without milk.

TEA

postcard teas source loose leaf teas from small, family run farms - they put the maker's name and location on every one of their teas. We are delighted to have worked with them to put together the som saa tea list – including some teas sourced specifically for us.

	pot 40cl
english breakfast v3	2.9
Rich and malty London blend of black teas sourced from small farms in Japan, and Assam and Kerala in India gianfranco's earl grey	2.9
A blend of Darjeeling and Kerala black teas infused with cold pressed, Calabrian bergamot oil. More subtle than your usual Earl Grey.
nokcha green	2.9
Only leaves from old, wild tea trees go into this Korean green tea with a grassy, cereal like sweetness vietnamese jasmine green	2.9
From ancient trees in the Northern hills of Vietnam and hand scented with fresh jasmine flowers master hobayashi's hojicha	3

Green tea hand roasted over charcoal until it turns a golden brown. The result is a soft and warming tea with notes of caramel and smoke master xiang's original lapsang	3.5

The real deal. Most commercial lapsang is flavoured with artificial smoke essence. This is hand smoked over pine needles in Gua Dun, the Chinese village that lapsang originates from.

'rice tea' oolong	3.8
From the far North of Thailand. 'Jin xuan' or 'milk' oolong' is flavoured with a herb reminiscent of sticky rice. The result is a smooth, buttery tea with an aroma akin to rice pudding and cream.

traditional da hong pao	5.9
Dao Hong Pao (literally 'big red robe') is the most noble of Wuyi teas and the original mother trees are believed to date back to the Song dynasty (960-1279). Whilst in modern times the name has been used for products of inconsistent quality, this tea from Yunnan Sourcing is as good as it gets. Traditionally charcoal roasted, it displays a bright orange tea soup and intense aromas of dark fruits and chocolate with complex mineral notes.

yiwu 'ancient spirit' puerh 2002	7.2
Stone pressed from spring 2002 material and stored for close to a decade in Jinghong, Yunnan. Perfect wet storage and fifteen years age have rounded this tea into a smooth, aged example of classic raw puerh. Notes of flowers, hay, smoke and camphor with a beautiful rosy hue to the infusion.
