

welcome to som saa

thai food is not renowned for pairing well with wine or drinks generally. however, after a lot of arduous tasting sessions, we've come to believe it can be matched brilliantly - it just requires a sense of adventure.

the following drinks are all chosen to match thai food in one way or another. our cocktail list draws on many of the exciting thai ingredients we have in the kitchen. some of our white wines are off-dry, a number are very aromatic. our selection of the reds leans towards riper and less tannic bottles.

please just ask if we can be of guidance to your taste buds, or if you'd like to hear about some of the special bottles we often have hidden out the back.

COFFEE

We are delighted to serve Climpson & Sons coffee. Having hosted us for a year at our popup they are now part of the som saa story. Since Thailand has no café or espresso culture we have decided to keep things simple and serve Climpson's beautiful estate blend as french press. With or without milk.

TEA

postcard teas source loose leaf teas from small, family run farms - they put the maker's name and location on every one of their teas. We are delighted to have worked with them to put together the som saa tea list – including some teas sourced specifically for us.

english breakfast v3	3.2
----------------------	-----

Rich and malty London blend of black teas sourced from small farms in Japan, and Assam and Kerala in India

gianfranco's earl grey	3.5
------------------------	-----

A blend of Darjeeling and Keralan black teas infused with cold pressed, Calabrian bergamot oil. More subtle than your usual Earl Grey.

nokcha green	3.5
--------------	-----

Only leaves from old, wild tea trees go into this Korean green tea with a grassy, cereal like sweetness

vietnamese jasmine green	3.5
--------------------------	-----

From ancient trees in the Northern hills of Vietnam and hand scented with fresh jasmine flowers master kobayashi's hojicha 3.5

Green tea hand roasted over charcoal until it turns a golden brown. The result is a soft and warming tea with notes of caramel and smoke

master xiang's original lapsang 4

The real deal. Most commercial lapsang is flavoured with artificial smoke essence. This is hand smoked over pine needles in Gua Dun, the Chinese village that lapsang originates from.

'rice tea' oolong 4.2

From the far North of Thailand. 'Jin xuan' or 'milk' oolong' is flavoured with a herb reminiscent of sticky rice. The result is a smooth, buttery tea with an aroma akin to rice pudding and cream.

FRESH HERBAL TEA

pandan leaf 3.5

fresh lemongrass 3.5
